LORIMER FEELS FINE;

SIDESTEPS REPORTER

Friends Declare There Is No.

Danger of Him Resigning From Senate.

Chicago, Ill., May il.—United States senator William Lorimer appeared at the bank of which he is president to-day and was closely questioned concerning the visit of vice president Sherman to Chicago last Saturday. Senator Lorimer made no objection to questions asked him, nor did he answer any of them, except to smile and reply regarding his health and the weather. The collequy follows: Q.—"Senator, did the vice president have a talk with you Saturday about the advisability of resigning your seat in the senate?" A.—"I am feeling a triffe better to-day."

Q.—Have you seen the reported polt of the senate?"

A.—'I can safely say that I am feet-ing better today than I have been of late.

Q-"Have you decided whether your will resign your seat or continue the

A.—'It is a remarkably pleasant day, and I feel better now." Friends of Lotimer repeated today their belief that he will not resign un-der any circumstances. To the man who will wear only tailor made clothes let me say that my shop is the best equipped in El Paso. I am showing an enormous line of new patterns and rendering expert service at popular prices. You will find here a little bit better quality than you expect and the prices a little lower than you expected to pay. Give me a trial R. V. Pearson, 110 Texas, local home of Royal tailoring.
